THE CONSTITUTION AND PUBLIC FREE SCHOOLS.

The position which the HERALD has heretofore taken and which seems to be misunderstood by many teachers of the county, is that the interests of the Public Schools do not demand the services of County Superintendents or even of teachers of the Public Schools as members of the Constitutional Convention. The men who demand a change of the Constitution in the interest of the Public School system are evidently ignorant of the provisions of the present Constitution. The portion of this instrument relating to Public Schools was prepared by a warm friend of the School system, and, in our opinion, it is as liberal as any friend of public schools could desire.

The constitution gives to the general Assembly almost unlimited power to provide for the public education of the children of the state. It requires that body to establish normal schools, and gives them the privilege of establishing agricultural schools and such grades of schools as shall be for the public good. It requires provision for uniformity of text books and the furnishing of school-houses with such apparatus and library as may be necessary. It requires the general assembly to set apart as a permanent literary fund, the present literary funds of the state, the proceeds of all public lands donated by Congress for public school purposes, of all escheated property, of all waste and unappropriated lands, of all property accruing to the state by forfeitures, and all fines collected for offences committed by the state, and such other sums as the general assembly may appropriate.

It requires the general assembly to apply to the support of Public Schools the annual interest on the literary fund, the capitation tax, and an annual tax of not less than ten cents nor more than fifty cents upon the hundred dollars, and permits the counties to raise an additional sum for free school purposes not exceeding fifty cents upon the hundred dollars in any one year.

The salaries of all school officers are to be provided for by the general assembly.

It will be perceived from the above that the general assembly has the power of levying a tax, for the benefit of schools alone, greater than the entire amount of taxes now levied for all purposes and the counties have the power of increasing the school tax two and one-half times, the present tax in this county.

The Constitution is very liberal and the man, who will announce that he is in favor of changing that Constitution in the interest of the public schools, will find it very difficult to get the support of the people.

The only objectionable feature that we find in the Constitution in regard to public education is the selection of County Superintendents by the State Board of Education. Let them be selected by the people who know them. If the people are capable of electing members of the general assembly who enact the school laws, they are capable of electing the officers to execute those laws.

The constitution evidently needs few changes and especially that part of it relative to the public schools. It is expected that the court system will be revised in the interest of economy. For this work, men of good judgment and men with some knowledge of the subject, upon which they are expected to legislate, are required.

We are not opposed to school-teachers as members of the convention, if they are prepared to properly represent their constituents. What we are opposed to is the sending of men to the convention simply because they are school teachers or school superintendents with the idea that they can improve the present school system by changing the Constitution of the state.

The state democratic committee has called a meeting in order to make arrangements for the state convention to nominate candidates for the state offices. This will necessitate the calling of a county convention or district meetings in order to select delegates to the State Convention. The general feeling seems to be one of indifference. The politicians seem to favor one candidate or the other for governor, but among the people there seems to be no choice. They have been nauseated with politics, on account of local dimensions and take little or no interest in public affairs. The feeling seems to exist in both parties. Outside of a few active politicians, there is a state of indifference, such as we have never before noticed in the county.

THE COUNTY SUPERINTENDENT.

The entries for the race for County Superintendent of Schools closed today. So far as we are informed there are but two entries and both of them from the town of Strasburg, whose cry for a long time has been that it does not receive its share of public patronage. There may be some dark horses entered for this race, of which no notice has been given. From all we can learn both of the contestants that are known have been well groomed. The judges selected are the Governor, Attorney General and Superintendent of Schools. They are expected to give the race their impartial attention. The record of one consists principally of years of service, the files of the Superintendent's office and the unanimous endorsement of the teachers at the Institute held in Woodstock last year. The other contestant must depend upon the endorsement of citizens of the county, members of the school board, &c. Whatever influence the jockeys can exert must also be taken into consideration, for they have been busy at work presenting to the Board the superior points of the respective contestants. Both of them, we are informed, feel certain of the prize. Which one will get it, will be announced in a future issue of the HERALD.

REPUBLICAN MASS MEETING.

A republican mass meeting called for the purpose of selecting a candidate for the constitutional convention was held at Irwin's opera hall, last Monday. The crowd in attendance was small, an indication that the people of Shenandoah are not much interested in a constitutional convention. The object of the meeting was explained by Mr. J. N. Davis, Chm. of the Republican county committee. Dr. C. R. Moore of Mt. Jackson, was elected chairman and Mr. Charles Swartz of Maurertown, Secretary.

Dr. Moore upon taking the chair delivered a speech of some length. The following resolutions were adopted:

WHEREAS the election for members of the State Constitutional Convention is the most important that has been held in the State for thirty years. Therefore Resolved that the candidate nominated by this meeting today pledge himself if elected to vote:

First: To maintain the integrity of the Free school system without any curtailment or abridgement of the same as it now stands.

2nd: To vote against the disfranchisement of any citizen of the State, who is now entitled to vote, who is 21 years of age, who is required to bear arms in time of war and pay taxes in time of peace.

3rd: To vote for the submission of the constitution as framed by said Constitutional Convention to the present voters of the State for adoption or rejection.

Mr. Harper Zirkle, of Lee District was unanimously nominated as a candidate for the constitutional convention. A committee was appointed to wait upon Mr. Zirkle and inform him of his nomination. Upon the return of the committee, it was announced that Mr. Zirkle positively declined. Dr. C. R. Moore was then unanimously nominated, and responded in a speech accepting the nomination. While no one seemed to seek the nomination, there were several in the audience whose countenances bore an expression of expectancy and resignation as if they were ready for the lightning to strike them.

MILLIONS GIVEN AWAY.

It is certainly gratifying to the public to know of one concern in the land who are not afraid to be generous to the needy and suffering. The proprietors of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, have given away over ten million trial bottles of this great medicine; and have the satisfaction of knowing it has absolutely cured thousands of hopeless cases. Asthma, Bronchitis, Hoarseness and all diseases of the Throat, Chest and Lungs are surely cured by it. Call on B. Schmitt, Druggist, and get a free trial bottle. Regular size 50c. and $1.00. Every bottle guaranteed, or price refunded.

The government is much encouraged by the reports of the surrender of the Philippines and the discovery of paying gold mines in the islands.

The Brighton tannery at Petersburg, Va., has been sold to the United States Leather Company and a railroad will be built from Keyser, to that place.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

(From our Regular Correspondent.)
Washington, April 8th, 1901.

Uncle Sam has no idea of turning showman, and as long as Aguinaldo is a prisoner, he will not be allowed to come to the U. S. If he lives up to the oath of allegiance he has taken, and carries out the promises he has made to Gen. MacArthur, he will eventually become free. Then, if he has the price, and wishes to visit the U. S., he will be as free to do so as any other resident of the Philippines. But all that will take time, and there is no probability of his exhibiting himself in this country in the near future. Some of the thousands who are writing to the War Department as to what ought to be done with Aguinaldo are inclined to be wasteful. One of them, signing himself "The Poet of Winnisook," heads his communication with this verse, expressing his idea of the embarrassment of the President and the Secretary of War: "What shall we do with Aggie? Pray what shall we do? Elihu looked at William, And William looked at Elihu."

The President easily succeeded in persuading Governor Allen, of Porto Rico to withhold his resignation, although he came to Washington for the purpose of presenting it. He will return to Porto Rico about the 1st of May, but it is not expected that he will remain more than a few months longer. He says the island is getting along all right, and that after the 1st of next March, when the tariff law, under which the revenues for the support of the island government are now raised will expire, there will probably be free trade with the U. S.

Mr. M. F. Rittenhouse, a prominent Chicago lumber dealer, now visiting Washington, said in the course of an interesting conversation on the extensive ramifications of his business "Chicago has for many years been drawing her lumber supply largely from Lake Michigan ports. But in recent years that has become well nigh exhausted, and the supply has been coming from Lake Superior ports, but even that is showing signs of exhaustion, and we have to purchase more and more from central Wisconsin and the South. The Southern states in the immediate future will send increasing quantities to the Northern states. I saw, the other day a large consignment of Arkansas lumber for Maine, once famous for her lumber industry. It was to be used for the construction of towers for windmills. However, the mighty forest areas of the Pacific coast must eventually be drawn on to supply the eastern cities. I was approached not long ago by a gentleman who wanted to sell me 4,500,000 feet of lumber on Vancouver island. That is a pretty big quantity, but his timber preserves were represented on the map by what looked like little dots."

An incident is related of the college life of Hon. C. Knox, the new Attorney General, which shows what small things sometimes affect a man's future. Mr. Knox was a student at the West Virginia University, which had a rule that no student should attend a theatrical performance. One night, Mr. Knox and 19 other students violated the rule, and the next day they were all expelled. All but Mr. Knox and one other student signed a promise not to again violate the rule and were reinstated. Mr. Knox then went to Mt. Union, (Ohio) College, where he first met Mr. McKinley, upon whose advice he afterwards became a lawyer, and upon whose invitation he has now become Attorney General of the U. S. Had Mr. Knox not been expelled from the West Virginia University, he might never have met Mr. McKinley.

WARNING.

The shirt waist man
Go head in hand today.
And the people year after year
Keep on throwing their clothes away.
The coat and the vest are laid to rest.
And where is the fleecy shawl?
And clothes get thinner and fewer.
What will be the end of it all?
Oh, what will the shirt waist man
Take next from the things he has to wear?
And what will the neat waist girl
Throw off from the shoulders now half bare?
The shirt waist man
And the neat waist girl
Go rolling down the way.
Have we started a trend
That's going to end
In the old fashioned way?

The Best Remedy for Rheumatism.

QUICK RELIEF FOR PAIN.

All who use Chamberlain's Pain Balm for rheumatism are delighted with the quick relief from pain which it affords. When speaking of this Mr. D. N. Sinks, of Troy, Ohio, says: "Some time ago I had a severe attack of rheumatism in my arm and shoulder. I tried numerous remedies out got no relief until I was recommended by Messrs. Geo. F. Parsons & Co., druggists of this place to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm. They recommended it so highly that I bought a bottle. I was soon relieved of all pain. I have since recommended this liniment to many of my friends, who agree with me that it is the best remedy for muscular rheumatism in the market." For sale by L. R. Irwin, Druggist.

The Democrats of Campbell county nominated United States Senator John W. Daniel for the constitutional convention.

Democratic primaries held Saturday forenoon the nomination of State Senator George B. Keelzel and Tallard N. Haas for the Constitutional Convention from Rockingham. The Republicans have called no convention as yet, but their leaders have been trying to induce certain Democrats to make an independent fight against the party nominees.

Mrs. Watson's Message.
She tells all suffering women how she was cured of Ovarian Inflammation by

LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—When I wrote to you a few months ago I had been suffering from inflammation of the ovaries and womb for over eighteen months. I had a continual pain and soreness in my back and side. I believe my troubles were caused by overwork and lifting some years ago. Life was a drag to me and I felt like giving up. I had several doctors, but they did me little good. I began to use Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound four months ago and am in better health to-day than I have been for years. All my pains are gone. Your Vegetable Compound has made me well. I recommend it to all suffering women."—MRS. S. J. WATSON, Hampton, Va.

When there is one remedy that is sure, and hundreds of thousands of women know from experience is reliable, it is wise to experiment with untried and comparatively unknown medicines?

Blood.
We live by our blood, and on it. We thrive or starve, as our blood is rich or poor.

There is nothing else to live on or by.

When strength is full and spirits high, we are being refreshed, bone muscle and brain, in body and mind, with continual flow of rich blood.

This is health.

When weak, in low spirits, no cheer, no spring, when rest is not rest and sleep is not sleep, we are starved; our blood is poor; there is little nutriment in it.

Back of the blood, is food, to keep the blood rich. When it fails, take Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil. It sets the whole body going again—man woman and child.
